VISIT BEAUFORT COUNTY

BATH

See St. Thomas Episcopal Church, the oldest church building in the state. Stroll the waterfront at Bonner's Point. Grab a hot dog or an old fashioned cheeseburger at one of the local grills. Learn about the notorious pirate, Blackbeard, at the Historic Bath Site Visitor Center and Exhibit Hall. Call one of many local Captains to charter a relaxing boat ride or a fishing excursion. Finish your day with dinner at one of Bath's restaurants with a cold one in North Carolina's oldest town.

AURORA

Take a delightful ride on the Bayview Ferry on the east side of Bath to Aurora. A large phosphate mine in the area gives both paleontologists and fossil enthusiasts a unique opportunity to collect and study fossils from prehistoric times. The Aurora Fossil Museum, located in town, includes a wide variety of marine fossils from the Pleistocene, Pliocene and Miocene eras, as well as Native American artifacts from the area. For lunch, savor a shrimp basket and a piece of lemon meringue pie from a nearby restaurant.

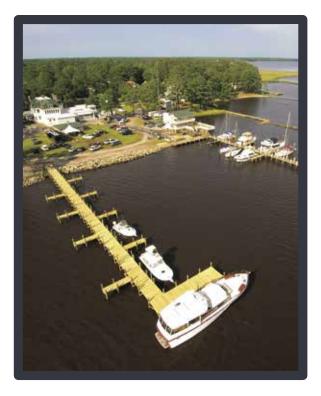

14 🚺

BELHAVEN

Located on the intercoastal waterway, you can wake up at your leisure and enjoy a nice breakfast at one of the B&B's..or have breakfast at a local diner. With a rich cultural heritage that spans over two centuries, Belhaven is home to eclectic shops and boutiques each offering a wide range of items, antiques, and curiosities that can't be found anywhere else. While shopping, take notice of the architecture of the buildings. There are several restaurants in the downtown area open for lunch. You can

It's like no other museum you've ever seen! Experience the beauty and natural resources of the Pungo River/Pamlico Sound on a local charter boat or fishing venture. Drop by the Chamber office (open Tuesday-Friday 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.) and pick up your Tour of History and Trivia flver. Dine in one of Belhaven's fine downtown restaurants.

PANTEGO

With a population of less than 200 people, Pantego is Beaufort County's smallest incorporated town, but it's got plenty of charm. The town sits on Pantego Creek, a tributary of the Pungo River, and is home of the Pantego Academy Museum, where the rural eastern North Carolina way of life has been preserved. In town, there's a community park; just out of town, there's Terra Ceia Farms, worldfamous for its tulip and peony bulbs that bloom in the spring.

Real People. Real Power

Air leaks in your home can be hidden in walls, floors, basements and attics, or in your ducts. According to the U.S. Department of Energy, around 30% of heated or cooled air never reaches you. Instead, it leaks behind walls and out the attic or basement. Leaks cost you money on electric bills, and they make you uncomfortable.

Our energy auditors start with a survey to determine observations, behaviors, needs, and desires of the homeowner. If you don't test, it's just a guess. We look at your home as a system with each component impacting the others. We determine the needs of your unique home, and prioritize recommendations for energy savings. Our home energy audit identifies potential problems and provides access to cash rebates to help you pay for the improvements.*

Tideland EMC is a proud supporter of the premier retirement communities in Eastern North Carolina. If you own a home, or plan on building a residence within our service area, call Tideland EMC and get started with a FREE energy audit today!

BATH HISTORIC SITE & MUSEUM

1 Hour

There are lots of "firsts" in Bath: The first town in North Carolina. This one marks the site of the first public library in the American colonies. Given by the Reverend Thomas Bray to St. Thomas Parish in 1700, the collection of books included works about contemporary interests and religious works-including Gilbert Towerson's Application of the Church Catechism, the only book from the original collection known to exist today. Can you imagine the late fees if you forgot to bring that book back on time? Main St

SHOWBOAT AUTHOR, EDNA FERBER MARKER

The James Adams Floating Theater docked in Bath in the 1920s. It was a virtual floating fun house and the inspiration for the best-selling novel Show Boat. Novelist Edna Ferber boarded the James Adams while researching her book and ended up working, eating, playing, and rehearsing with the company aboard. Show Boat was eventually adapted into a musical and three motion pictures. Main Street

BLACKBEARD MARKER

1 Hour

Walk in the footsteps of a pirate. Legend has it that Blackbeard (aka Edward Teach) was a tall, murderous pirate whose shiny black beard smoked when he walked. The infamous captain of the Queen Anne's Revenge settled in Bath after running his ship aground on a sandbar in Beaufort. Here, he received a royal pardon, which he promptly squandered by returning to the sea where he continued to rob and plunder with three pistols strapped across his chest. Skulk around the town he called home ... before he lost his head in a bloody battle off Ocracoke Island in 1718.

Main Street Bath, NC 27808

ST. THOMAS EPISCOPAL CHURCH

St. Thomas Church, in the heart of Historic Bath, has been an active parish for more than 300 years. That's a lot of "Amens." The church was built in 1734 and is the oldest church building in the state. Services are held in the historic structure every Sunday as well as other times throughout the year. The St. Thomas family welcomes visitors and those searching for a new home to worship. 101 Craven Street Bath, NC 27808

LAWSONS WALK SIGN

1 Hour

Imagine mapping out a plan for your own town and picking where houses would be built and where the main street would lie. Think historical HGTV series, before there was HGTV or even TV. That's what John Lawson did for Bath. Lawson was a Naturalist, an explorer, and he was the Surveyor General for the Lords Proprietors. Known as the town's father, Lawson traveled the interior of the Carolina colony in the 1700s. He described the 550-mile journey in A New Voyage to Carolina, published in 1709. Lawson was killed by Tuscarora Indians while exploring the Neuse River in 1711.

Main Street Bath, NC 27808

DAY 2 HISTORIC TURNAGE THEATRE

Step inside the Turnage Theatre and you're transported back to the 1920s. Art Deco chandeliers illuminate the 432-seat theatre. A grand stage awaits the next magical performance. You can almost hear the cheers, laughter and applause of the audience. Visitors can tour the restored property by appointment. The Arts Council has transformed the space at the front of the theater into an art Gallery featuring the work of local craftsmen. So even when there is not a performance, there is always something creative to experience.

In 2006, 32 local artists each painted one of these large, fiberglass crabs as part of an outdoor community art project. The project raised a substantial sum for local charities. Though many have been "adopted" and moved out of town, you can still find six along the waterfront area, each decorated in a unique way.

THE LEMONADE ART GALLERY

1 Hour

Making lemons into lemonade is the specialty at Lemonade Art Gallery. The five artist-owners of Lemonade were inspired to open their own space after a gallery hosting them closed unexpectedly. Now, they display and sell works by more than 27 artists. Photography, paintings, hand blown glass, and woodworks are just a few of the mediums you'll find in this gallery and gift shop. The artists also teach classes and workshops in the rear of the gallery. Now that goes down sweet.

ART TYNDALL STUDIO

1 Hour

When you're an Artist named Art, can you live up to your own name? In this case, the answer is definitely yes. Bring home a taste of Little Washington with an oil on canvas painting by Art Tyndall. Beauty in the outdoors and the everyday are his subjects. Tyndall paints on location and captures his surroundings in oil on canvas. His original works depicting local scenes--downtown waterfront, landscapes, lighthouses, old cars and trucks, even Bill's Hot Dogs--are available for visitors to buy and bring home. And paintings of hot dogs have a lot less calories.

CAN YOU FIND THEM ALL?

The 'Crabs on the Move' project started in 2006. The Pine Needles Garden Club started this venture as a way to give back to the community in Washington. The crab statues were auctioned off to different organizations and businesses at a 'Crab Ball,' a black tie event that was held at the Washington Civic Center. The money raised went to local charities. The crabs were painted and decorated by local artists, then displayed in town. At that time, the statues would be moved to different parts of town on occasion. Thus the 'Crabs on the Move' became the name of the initiative.

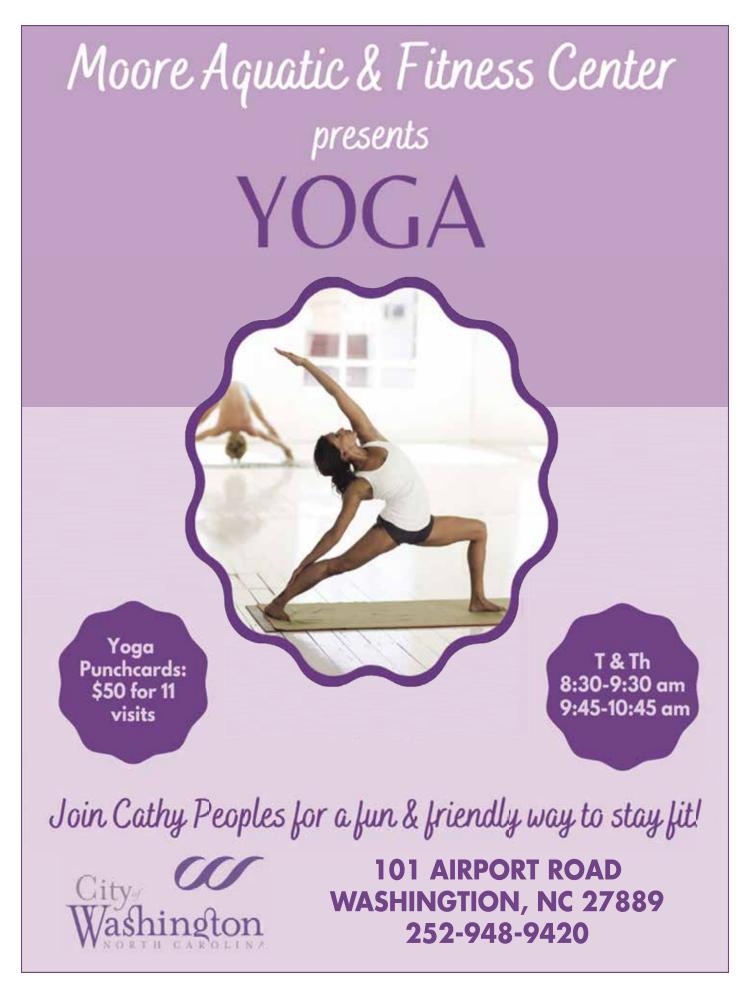

Project objectives included providing a marketing tool for tourism, raising money for local charities, tying in with the Estuarium's existing logo, providing an icon for tourists and locals in which to identify Beaufort County, and bringing Beaufort County's first outdoor art exhibit to life - a showcase for our local artists.

The project eventually took a new direction when they were bought by various businesses, organizations, and individuals, (many were repainted) and were placed in permanent spots throughout Washington and Beaufort County.

Here is a list of the crab statues with locations and photographs for families, individuals and other groups can use as a type of 'scavenger hunt' to find and post your pictures.

We hope you enjoy this activity while social distancing. If we have missed a crab statue, let us know where it is, and we will add it! HAVE FUN!
